

"There is a strong need for women to use their voices and their votes to influence what happens in our state."

– Sandy Praeger, Kansas Insurance Commissioner, 2003-2014

Vision Statement

Our vision is to restore integrity, fiscal responsibility and balance to Kansas by electing moderate candidates to public office.

Mission Statement

The mission of Women for Kansas is to recruit, motivate, and educate women who will actively participate in the process of electing moderates to public office who will advocate for moderate policies.

Core Values

- A court system free from political influence
- Equal rights for all citizens
- Separation of church and state
- Advocacy of health care rights and opportunities
- Equal access for immigrant families
- Fair and equal voting rights
- Preservation of excellence in public schools and higher education
- Recognition of, and support for, the arts as vital to our quality of life
- Protection of our environment against avoidable degradation and depletion of our natural resources
- A fair, progressive tax system that adequately funds public services
